

Vanessa Thomas Williams

Attorney at law

Vanessa Thomas Williams specializes in Employment Relations and Industrial Relations law. She is a qualified Attorney at law, who has held management positions in both the public and private sectors in Trinidad and Tobago and Guyana. Her professional work covers corporate training in Industrial Relations, Human Resource Management, Workplace Policy Design and Implementation, and Occupational Safety and Health Management, in the Caribbean. She is also a trial advocate and continues to represent a range of regional employers, in collective bargaining. Ms. Thomas Williams has served as an Adjunct Lecturer at the University of the West Indies, St. Augustine Campus, in the fields of Administrative Law and Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations in the Public Sector, for several years, and now, for the course – Law, Governance, Economy and Society. She is the first lady President of the Safety Council of Trinidad and Tobago.